About eight months ago, many of us were in Houston for the USJCI Senate Winter Board Meeting. As the various images of the city and the rising water appear on the news, a reoccurring thing running through my mind is "I remember that place - I remember just being there!". And as this areas begins what will be a very long recovery, this is clearly a time in which the USJCI Senate can put our mission into action by supporting the Jaycee movement.

The message below comes on behalf of the Texas Jaycees and details the efforts that they are taking in response to Hurricane Harvey and it's aftermath. Please consider providing any support for which you may be able. And please keep the people of Houston, of Texas and of the other Gulf coast states in your thoughts as Hurricane Harvey circles back to come ashore for a third time.

John Robinson #55768
46th President, USJCI Senate

Subject: Fwd: Texas Jaycees and the Houston Asia Jaycees - Hurricane Harvey

The Texas Jaycees are working on a disaster relief effort. Here is a list of shelters that Jaycees can send water food, cleaning supplies, clothes, diapers, dog and cat food, pillows and blankets. Besides these shelter location (Texas Jaycee) President Josh has a message: "We are going to be making a run to Houston Tuesday, 8-29, to deliver needed supplies. Trailers will be at 123 Division Street in Muenster for drop offs. Bottled water, food, toiletries, clothes, blankets or whatever you feel may be needed. We will make stops along the way if necessary to pick up other donations. We will be leaving Muenster hopefully around 4-5 pm."

Past (Texas Jaycee) President Katherine has set up a location to send financial donations through the Houston Asia Jaycees Foundation.

President Josh is also working on getting a Jaycee Center donation site in Houston for later this week.

Please spread the word. We typically don't ask but this time we are asking everyone to help.

God Bless you all

Raj Nadkarni
Texas JCI Senator

Thought of the Day: Life's about friendships, the way you love your partner, the way you care for your children. That is what life is about. Not anything about earning a hundred zillion dollars because you toured America more than anyone else. I want life to be about creativity.
- -- Joe Strummer, former lead singer for the Clash rock band.

History of the Day: Aug 29, 1533, Atahualpa, the last Incan King of Peru, was murdered on orders from Spanish conqueror, Francisco Pizarro. The Inca empire died with him.
